

Camp Yowochas

Activity Guide

Co-operative Games

As the name suggests, these games emphasize fun rather than competition. Everyone wins, everyone participates and everyone is a working part of the group. Participants will learn team work, communication, cooperation and leadership skills through a variety of games and activities. Parachute games can also be included as types of cooperative games.

Program Specifics

- ◆ Minimum 15 participants
- ◆ Well suited for all– ages
- ◆ Activity will be led by a trained Camp Yowochas staff member
- ◆ Available year-round
- ◆ Participants will use leadership, teamwork, trust, cooperation and communication skills.
- ◆ A wide variety of cooperative games are available to choose from to best suit your groups needs

Safety Considerations

This activity will be run by a Camp Yowochas staff member who will supervise the safety of participants at all times. Rules and guidelines will be discussed before each activity begins and weather will be taken into consideration.

An indoor location for cooperative games can be provided.